How do Points and Rewards work?

Simply put, Points go into your “Points Balance” and Rewards Dollars (as well as Bonus Offers, Discounts, Coupons & Free Burritos) go in your “Rewards Available Balance”.

You earn 1 Point for every dollar you spend. When you collect 25 Points you will receive $2.50 in Rewards Dollars. How? Like one brilliant poof of virtual Siegfried & Roy magic, 25 Points gets pulled from your Points Balance and $2.50 in Glorious Rewards Money is simultaneously banked right there in your Rewards Dollars account.

Technically, your Points Balance is deducted 25 Points and your Rewards Balances is credited $2.50. Celebrate with a fist pump and enjoy.

You can spend these just like cash and enjoy even more of your favorite JumBurrito foods. Just present your Card and inform your cashier when your ready to redeem Rewards Dollars or Bonus Offers.

How are coupons and discounts automatically loaded to my card?

Once we dispatch your exclusive Bonus Offer, Freebie, Coupon or Discount, it goes whizzing and zooming through the air, safely landing in your account, patiently waiting and hoping to be put to use. Just present your card to redeem. When they safely land, we'll send you an email to let you know they are there. You will also be reminded by your cashier and can find a summary at the end of your receipt.

And don't forget that you can always log into your user account and visit them whenever you like. Just remember, once they expire, they will zoom off again into space.

What are 'Revolutionaries Only' Bonus Offers?

From time to time, Membership may include privileges such as: opportunities for you to earn "double points" during certain days or times or opportunities to use your Rewards Card to raise money for charity. Revolutionaries may also be bestowed with exclusive coupons for free food, BOGO offers, discounted meals, or entry into contests for prizes and merchandise.

These exciting offers and opportunities are always changing so keep an eye on your inbox and like us on Facebook to hear about the club's latest news and promotions.

How do I check my Point and Reward Balances?

*Ask your cashier

*Check your receipt

*Login to your user account {www.jumburrito.com}

*go directly to mybalance.jumburrito.com

How will I know if I've reached 25 points and received a reward?

After payment, your cashier will let you know if you've earned any Rewards or Bonus Offers. You can also check your receipt or your account online.

How do I use my Rewards Dollars?

Let your cashier know you want to use your Rewards Dollars. You can spend all your Rewards Dollars or just some...the remainder will be left on your balance to use at another time.

Hey, why don't my Points equal the total amount of money I spent?

You earn Points on the money you spend, excluding taxes, coupons & discounts. This is usually reflected by your Subtotal. We take that amount and round it to the nearest dollar. That's how many Points you will receive. In the unique event that your change is exactly 50 cents, we round to the nearest even number.

What if I'm worried about giving out my e-mail and personal information?

There is no need to worry; JumBurrito keeps your personal information confidential and will not sell it to a third party or bombard you with e-mail or advertisements. You will receive a welcome email, a birthday email and usually no more than one promotional email every month.

I've recently moved/had a name change, how do I update my account information?

To make changes to your name, address or password, simply log in to your account online and edit. Login to your account by going to the Revolutionary Rewards Club Section of our website www.jumburrito.com and selecting "view account".

What do I do if I forgot my password?
